“ Dear Parry Family.

I was so sad to read in Sunday's paper that your mother had passed away., she and I always had such great chats over the fence in our back yard, we would keep each other up on all the news of our families and neighborhood gossip, of which there was always a lot. The neighborhood sure has changed a lot over the years, I hardly know any of the neighbors that live around here , just aren't as friendly as they used to be, when you all lived here. I remember when we moved here we were the youngest people on the block and now for sure we are the oldest. (scary) Charlie and I both send our deepest sympathy and hope that the memories of your mother will get you thru this difficult time. Debbie and Charlie Smithgall
