

John W. Heisey

September 28, 2016

John W. Heisey, 90, of Lancaster, PA, passed away on Wednesday evening, Sept. 28, 2016 at the Hospice and Community Care Hospice Center, Mount Joy, PA following a short illness. Born in Manheim, PA, he was the son of the late Roy and May Shelly Heisey and the husband of the late Virginia Lee Huffman Heisey, who passed away on January 16, 2015.

John had worked for KD Tools for many years in the planting department until he retired. He is a member of the Word of Life Deaf Lutheran Church in Lancaster and also the Lancaster Association for the Deaf and the Lancaster Keystone Deaf Senior Citizens. He played baseball, enjoyed traveling, watching sports and working on picture puzzles and was an avid Pittsburgh Steeler fan.

John will be lovingly remembered by his sons; Lindsey and Scott Heisey, his two grandchildren, Carey and Tyler Heisey and a brother Tom Heisey. He was preceded in death by his siblings; LeRoy, Donald, Barbara, Betty, Virginia, Joan and Mary.

Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to Celebrate his Life at the Word of Life Deaf Lutheran Church, 10 Delp Rd., Lancaster, PA on Saturday, October 8, 2016 at 2:00 pm with Pastor Russell A. Rockwell officiating. The family will receive friends at the church from 1:00 pm until the time of services.

“ Sorry to hear about your loss Scott and Lindsey of your father. He was incredibly great and gracious man along with your mother. I have just moved back to Pennsylvania from Virginia after several years of being away. Scott I hope if you get a chance you should look me up. I hope everybody is fine and I am doing well. Take care. Keith Lynn Elizabethtown Pennsylvania
