“ Dear Uncle Pete, My Beloved and Precious Uncle, So many wonderful memories of Us on the Farm; the red Jeep rides we took, the hours of fun with Your Trains. Teddy and Susie, Tammy the Doggies. All our talks we had together, Wrestling watching tv together. The Supremes, Elvis, the little black music record player I would listen to in the “ secret” hideout for me in the pool table room that I holed up in learning to sing; You listening to me singing and calling me Elvis. I will treasure forever in my heart and Your memory shall live on in my Spirit. I will miss You My dear friend! Chief Henry, Wimpy and the cheeseburgers. You were Lampeter’s Best Fireman and A true Hero! You saved lives and were first on the scene. I am forever very proud of You Buddy!! My Buddy! Ole Wimp. Mom Mom and Pap. Bo Bo Brazil and Andre’ the Giant. Rubbing Your hands together saying” Dough” and 222. Things I will never forget. I love You. You were an Angel on Earth. R.I.P. Special Child of God! Love, Robin, Your Niece
