

John P. Zeszotarski

February 22, 2017

John P. Zeszotarski, 70, of Lancaster, PA, passed away on Wednesday, February 22, 2017 at Hospice and Community Care in Mt. Joy, PA. He was the husband of Carol Baxendale Zeszotarski and they were married for 46 ½ years.

John was born in New York City, N.Y., son of the late Sylvia Pelka and Kazimier Zeszotarski. In addition to his wife, he is survived by two sisters, Nancy, wife of Greg Leck, and Janet Zeszotarski, cousin, Debbie, niece, Renee Leck, and several other cousins.

A 1968 graduate of Seton Hall University with a B.A. in Biology, he also completed a Master's program in Audiology at the University of Alabama in 1970. He served as a Licensed Audiologist in several states throughout the U.S. He was an affiliate of the Speech Language Hearing Association. Most recently, after moving to Lancaster in 2009, he was employed by Otolaryngology Physicians of Lancaster (OPL), retiring in 2010. His dedication to work made him a very reliable Audiologist who was always well informed about new developments in the field.

His hobbies included photography, chess, kayaking, canoeing, and cross fit training.

His pleasant and charismatic personality will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him.

The family expresses special thanks to the medical staff of the Ann B. Barshinger Cancer Institute's Infusion Unit, Hospice and Community Care, and to others who contributed to John's care.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend John's Celebration of Life Memorial Service on Friday, March 10, 2017 at 11:00 a.m. at Covenant United Methodist Church, 110 N. Mulberry Street, Lancaster, PA 17603. The family will receive friends at the church from 10:00 a.m. until time of service. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be given in John's memory to Covenant United Methodist Church, 110 N. Mulberry Street, Lancaster, PA 17603 to either The Dolly Kepner Music Fund or the Christian Outreach Ministries (note preference on check).
