September 11, 2024

Jose A. Negrón-Velez, 67, of Brownstown, PA passed on to be with the Lord and he earned his permanent license for hunting and fishing on Wednesday, September 11, 2024, after battling with cancer in the last months. Born in Lares, Puerto Rico, he was the son of the late Jose A. and Tomasa Negrón-Velez and husband to his supportive wife of thirty-six years, Linda A. Negrón.

Jose was well-loved and was an avid hunter and fisherman, he loved going to Puerto Rico to visit family, fish, and spend time in nature in the woods. He even taught his nephews how to hunt. He liked food, especially Yoder's Restaurant Buffet in New Holland, PA, and coffee. His happiest moments were hugging family, especially the children, and being supportive. He left an impression on those around him no matter where he went. He also was a big fan of country music.

In addition to his wife, Linda, Jose is survived by his siblings: Jose Luis, Eudies Jacinta, Gonzalo and Maria Iris, 5 brothers-in-law, 5 sisters-in-law, 2 cats, Mio and Pumpkin and numerous nieces and nephews and great-grandnieces and grandnephews. Jose was preceded in death by his father.
