“ Not only did I work with Joe for years, I knew him as a teenager. He was a friend of my brother, Billy. Seeing Joe almost every day was like seeing my brother. From the day we realized we had known each other in the past, I called him Joey and he called me Patty. To me, he was still a kid. I lost friend.

Holding Jennifer in my heart and praying for the entire family. 💔

“ *Dear Jennifer,
I am so very sad to hear of Joe's passing, he was such a wonderful person with a huge heart. I remember very fondly when we were neighbors on Candlewyck, he was very helpful not only to me but the girls..... he always kept his eye on the 3 of us and it was so very much appreciated. He was always very quick to offer a helping hand and as well as compassion. It was truly a blessing to have known him.
Hugs to you,
Tanya*
