“ So sorry to see read this today in the paper. I met Joe when I was a kid and he worked at Riverview across the street from our house. I went over all the time and hung out with the guys. Joe and the guys would take me along for break when they went to break. I always said I wanted to work with them when I graduated.

RIP Homey.

“ Oh Joe you were such a longtime dear friend. When our kids were young and we could not afford much when they started putting pay for view wrestling on he would get it and me and my kids would go take a meal and watch it in his trailer on South Duke St. the neighborhood kids were allowed to watch thru his front window, but only my kids allowed in. Good thing there was not much room. I have enjoyed cooking for you all these years up until this week. Whenever I make meatloaf from now on I will always eat the first piece myself in your honor, I will miss you my buddy If I don't see you tomorrow, I won't be in! You will always be in my heart! Love You!
