“ I’m just confused and hurt... and then I remember that it is better to have loved and lost than to never have loved at all ❤️ Josh there are so many things I wish I said before today, but Good bye is the one I wish I said most. You are a beautiful soul and the parts of the world that didn’t get to see your smile are at loss. Thank you for all the things you’ve done and adventures you’ve taken with myself and my sons thank you for walking into HOP and becoming a staple in our crazy crew. Thank you for the way you loved and I pray for peace in your families hearts ❤️

“ I remember Josh for the love of his son. Josh was a great father but would confess, he wish he could do more for his son. Yet every time I saw him whether in person or on the phone, he was always supporting his kid! I don't think he knew the impact he had on his son. I will miss Josh. We had a lot of ups and downs but he still was a good man.

“ *We shared many memories from talking about life, Health and finances. You are passionate about stuff and used to text me to pick you up to gym. We did talk a lot about the battles you won & acknowledged that the war was still ongoing. Brother you fought a good fight even with a hand tied behind.. You are a kind, helpful, grateful and fun friend. One of your last texts to me was “Bro you just brought tears to my eyes bro r.s“ ...
“Wow bro thank you thank you so much“
Thank you for the lessons. I appreciate you bro. Rest in Power...

“ Man we met when I first came back to Pennsylvania, I was 18 and we were playing football and we started arguing over an interception and the only interception I caught on you lol. We became best of friends after that and just stayed tight. Met your mom your sisters brothers and they all considered me family just as you did. Bro your one of my closest friends that I had in my whole life. You were more than my friend you were my brother. You saved my life twice and till this I could never thank you enough. When I heard the news about your passing I was at work and my knees just got weak and I could barely stand. First thought i had was na this cant be true it just cant be true and come to find out it was and i walked to my bathroom and just sat there for hours and hours thinking why how could this happen. To my brother of all people how could this happen? I still can't get my head wrapped around it bc I'm always look for you when I walk up to the gulf. Everytime I seen you I had t ok be loud and holla your name and then you knew ahhh there goes lol Ill miss you bro always man. But one thing I can say is I'm going to do what you always said and that is keep my head up stay strong and be the best father I can be to my young one. Much love bro from the heart I'll see you again one day

“ I remember meeting you 3 years ago at a salad bar, you told me to save you some croutons, I looked at you and just smiled, you looked backed and said always smiling but can never say hi. That moment on, I instantly knew that we was destined to spend life together. Babe, my handsomeness, my love, my rider and so much more... I love you, I love you more than you will ever know. The moment you passed away is the moment my life changed forever, I keep asking myself what do I do now? And it's almost like I can hear you telling me to stay strong and keep moving forward. You was such an amazing person and a damn great father, you will be missed by so many people babe, and for as long as I'm living my baby you'll be. Forever and always!!!!
