

Juanita A. Lunger

February 11, 2019

Juanita A. Lunger, 91, passed away peacefully to her heavenly home on Monday, February 11, 2019 at Brethren Village. She was born in Marcus Hook, PA, on May 14, 1927. She was the wife of the late Raymond T. Lunger, and the daughter of the late Wallace and Laura Maslin. Surviving are three children; Raymond Lunger (Terrie), Douglas Lunger (Donna), and Cheryl Liszkiewicz; ten grandchildren and eighteen great-grandchildren.

During her life Mrs. Lunger lived in Delaware, Chester and Lancaster Counties. She was a member of Lancaster Church of the Brethren which she loved dearly. She enjoyed reading, cooking, especially potato salad, going on outings, and visiting with friends. She especially loved spending time with her family, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Juanita was a kind and generous person, always willing to help others. She loved living at Brethren Village where she enjoyed many friendships and activities. Preceding her in death was her brother Wallace and three sisters; Laura, Delores, and Lorraine.

Friends are invited to a Memorial Service at Lancaster Church of the Brethren, 1601 Sunset Ave., Lancaster, PA 17601 on Saturday, February 16, 2019 at 11:00 AM. The family will greet friends following the service. Interment will be private.

In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to the Church (address above) or to Brethren Village Benevolent Fund, 3001 Lititz Pike, Lititz, PA 17543.

“ I didn't know Juanita well but sat next to her at lunch with the Silver Singles several times. I remember her as a delightful, interesting lady. It was a shock to see that she had passed away. She proudly would say that she was "90". She will be missed. God bless her dear family.
