“ I just learned of Judi's passing tonight. I haven't been on Facebook in a few years, and lost touch with a lot of people from it. But I knew Judi from my mom, Debbie. They went to the same church in Aston. I adored Judi. I am heartbroken to learn she endured what she has. Judi was a sweet person, who liked you for who you were. I used to visit her when she had her shop in booths corner. She gave me a crystal that i was looking at there. I collect crystals so I always remembered her for this one. But now the crystal means more than it did. Judi, I am so sorry to hear of your passing. I hope your family has comfort during these times. You were such a lovely person with a beautiful heart, and I hope you knew that people felt that way about you. To Andrew, I'm so sorry.

“ *Judi, We will miss you greatly. You were always a ray of sunshine. It was fun listening to you talk about your family, and how you loved to spend time with them, either at home, or camping. We will all miss you greatly here on earth, and I'm glad to know you trusted in our LORD (so, catch up with you later)
Hugs from a long-time friend.
