

Kathleen A. Abel

September 26, 2013

Kathleen A. Abel, 62, of Lancaster, PA, died on Wednesday, September 25, 2013 at Manor Care, Lancaster. She was the daughter of the late Wallace and Irene Shaub King and the wife of Mike Abel with whom she celebrated 24 years of marriage.

Kathy received her Associate Degree from York Academy of Art and was a self-employed artist in Paper Sculpture. Kathleen had shows in and out of the Lancaster area and in her spare time enjoyed reading. She was a volunteer for both the Lancaster Historical Society and Susquehanna Association for the Blind and Vision Impaired.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by a brother, James King of California, a sister, Joan King, and a brother Phillip King both of Pequea, PA.

Family and friends are invited to share conversation and memories of Kathleen during an informal gathering that will take place on Tuesday, October 1, 2013 from 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. at The Groffs Family Funeral Services, 528 W. Orange Street, Lancaster, PA. Interment will be private.

The family requests that memorial contributions may be made in Kathleen's name either to the American Diabetes Association, 3544 N. Progress Avenue, Suite 103, Harrisburg, PA 17110, or to LancasterHistory.org, 230 N. President

Avenue, Lancaster, PA 17603.

“ Mike, Kathy was my 1st. cousin. Though I never met her, my Mother, Olive King Johnson often mentioned her to me. Kathy's Father , Wallace ,and my Mother Olive,were siblings, growing up together in Connecticut. My Mother often kept in touch with Kathy's sister, Joan. I am quite a distance away, living in Florida since 1969. My condolences to you, Joan, Jim, and Phil. May the many years with Kathy bring you peace and comfort, Margaret Johnson Coyle, Tallahassee, Florida

“ Mike....I was surprised and saddened to learn of Kathy's passing. I know that she was struggling with many painful health problems. I regret that will not be able to attend the service, as I am leaving on a long planned family vacation that day. You are in my thoughts.
