“ Dear Kay,
For someone who has been like a mother to me.... You have always been a familiar thread that has been woven into the fabric of my life and which continued into that of my husband's and children's lives. From my earliest visits to your home when I could not even reach the door handle to open the door to knock, to shoe shopping for me, to our trips together to Bermuda and New York City, and to your visits to my home in Delaware, we shared many moments! You will remain apart of our memories , a thread that will not unravel. I am grateful for our last conversation in February, and together remembering our special times we shared. May you rest in peace in the presence of Christ and with your loved ones that have passed before you. With love and gratitude, Janice Gabriel and family

“ We always enjoyed the times when Kay was able to spend time with our family at Thanksgiving. We always were eager to hear about her trips. Wish we would have been more diligent in visiting with her.

“ Kay and Abbie were dinner guests at our families' Thanksgiving and Christmas celebrations for many years. Our four children always looked forward to the vegetable tray Kay consistently supplied. Once those visits ceased due to health reasons, our now-adult children commented on how they missed them. We always enjoyed their company. Our last conversation with Kay occurred in November when she called to express her condolences on the passing of our 25-year-old son-in-love. She spoke with my husband, understanding our deep pain. My husband commented on the clarity of her mind. Kay was always a lady in our presence and I will always remember her perfectly groomed hair. We spent many hours enjoying her company. We will miss her.

“ We remember Kay with fond memories. Upon arriving from our honeymoon almost 60 years ago. we found our house decorated with toilet paper done by Kay and Barry's mother. Kay and Barry's mother had work together in the employment office at Armstrong. Barry & Naomi Bryson

“ Kay and her late husband Rudy (Wilho), were such great friends and neighbors, while growing up. If my parents didn't know where to find us kids, we were usually next door, hanging out with Kay and Rudy. There are too many memories to just post one, so let me just say that Kay will be missed and there is a small hole in my heart for her passing. Rest in Peace.
