“ To the Family of Kathy Weiss,

I remember Kathy as a very young girl living across the street in our Lancaster Twp. neighborhood. She had curly hair, glasses, great vitality and loved dogs and horses even then. I remember her parents well and enjoyed going to their shop as a teenager. Where have these years gone? The memories are still very clear and cordial of that era and of Kathy.

Deepest sympathy to you all.

“ Kathy was one of the most amazing ladies I've ever known. She was beautiful in every way possible, cared for me in spite of my shortcomings at the time, and had a wickedly funny sense of humor!

We had a standing "date" (I helped her around her house) every Monday. What began as a strictly business relationship between us became a very special friendship.

*We would sit at the table in her kitchen watch The View, smoke cigarettes, drink Turkey Hill iced tea, and discuss anything from politics, animals, and floor cleaning products to much more personal topics. Many times when she asked what I was up to my reply was greeted with the trademarked Kathy eye roll and "oh my god!". I treasure those conversations!*

She and her daughter Lisa became a second family to me. She was genuine, witty, strong, giving, funny, and forgiving.

She will remain in my heart forever! As I type this, I'm drinking a glass of iced tea (Turkey Hill, of course!) and just turned on the TV. You'll never guess what is on...

I love ya, Kathy! ❤️
