“ Homer, WOW you are surely going to be missed. You were such a sunshine of Life! Always there to give a helping hand....Always texting to see what's for dinner 🍷 and man you could look at something n go down in your little workshop n build it even better! But God seen you were getting tired knowing you were ready but for the rest of us it's always hard to say goodbye. But knowing there is no more pain or suffering, instead of saying goodbye will say until we meet again 💜❤️ Love ya Brenda and Family

“ I worked with Kenny for a couple of years in the Warehouse at Armstrong. He was a good man and a good friend. He helped guide me to do my job correctly. He was so patient, I'm sure if you would have mentioned me to him he would tell you that I was the reason he started getting gray hairs 🙏 RIP Kenny, You were loved on earth now you can sit with the meaning of Love.
