“ I am so sorry for your loss. I knew Kevin only a short time while we worked together at NIH, with me leaving before him. He was both a kind and gentle person, as well as a clear-thinking real estate professional. I truly valued the short time we were able to work together. God bless you.

“ Kevin's love for family gave him strength and purpose. He wanted to keep Marge comfortable and happy for their upcoming years, he seemed truly proud of his daughter, and he spoke joyfully about his son's life accomplishments. On his last birthday, Kevin shared how deeply touched he was to receive a special watch accompanied with a thoughtful note from his son acknowledging Kevin as the "glue" of the family. Family meant the world to Kevin.

He was kind, expressed being faithful to his church, and had a wonderful sense of humor.

“ I have a memory and I guess I am the first...
Our home in Matawan, NJ was awesome, the upstairs was like a dorm hall. Melis and I in one large room and Kevin and Don, eventually had single rooms. We had our own bathroom and the "secret" attic up there too.
I remember Kevin learning the times tables via single records that my parents had bought. He stood in our upstairs hallway/maybe 7/8th grade, in his tidy whities and we all sang the stinking times tables!!
It was hilarious! But to this day I can see him standing there trying to dance, not so well and us kids singing. He was growing like a weed and was stick thin and such an adorable " GEEK"....love him always xo sister. Carolyn Deitz

“ Kevin will always be remembered for his kindness and warmth by our family. We were Kevin's neighbors in Washington, D.C. and he was tremendously generous with his time and affection toward our young daughter Eleanor, who always peppered him with questions. He was always happy to engage in conversation with her about his grown up children and she delighted in sharing drawings she colored or fruits from our garden. We will miss his friendship.

“ Kevin spoke with such pride about his children and how they each transitioned from college kids to amazing young adults. I am sure that his legacy, humor, wit, and strength will live on through his family. Our deepest sympathies to your family. Too, too soon.

“ Marge & family,

I was privileged to work with Kevin at the Lancaster Host Resort as his admin in the sales office. I have fond memories of that time and especially at the birth of your children. I am saddened that the world has lost a genuinely honest & caring person. Keep his memories alive in your heart and he will not be completely gone. I will pray for you and him.

“ One would not have had to be close to Kevin to be shocked by his death. I, for one, have not spent time with him for years and years. And yet I grieve and will palpably grieve for a long time to come. Not because he was young. But because he was determinedly kind and willfully innocent. Kevin did not raise antipathy or resentment in anyone. He was a comfort in the world. This is why we are missing him so. Rest in God's love, Kevin. As you did in life.

“ Kevin always told me he would work until he died, but we assumed he would still be working in his 80's and 90's. He was a great boss and coworker, always telling jokes and having us admire his hair. Yes, he had great hair, plus an ebullient personality and a zest for life.

Marge and children - I am so very, very sorry for your loss.

“ My heart is breaking for all of you. I know how much pain you are all in right now, but keep thinking of all of the happy moments you spent together. Kevin always had a smile on his face...even when he wasn't smiling on the inside. He is still with you in your minds and hearts. He is now your special angel watching over all of you!
