

Larry Alton Lewis

November 6, 2020

Larry Alton Lewis, 63, passed away at home on Friday, November 6, 2020. Born in Kelton, PA, he was the son of the late Joseph Vincent Lewis and Delores Devine Williams.

Larry was a handyman who worked in the landscaping field. A fifty-year resident of Lancaster, he was known as being smart, positive, very organized, a nice guy who enjoyed model car building, bike riding, and was deeply religious in his faith. During the time that Uncle Billy had fallen ill he kept great care of his home. Larry had a great sense of humor and loved dancing to Michael Jackson music. His daughter, Katrina, was the love of his life.

He is survived by his daughter, Katrina L. Brison, Newark, DE, his brother, William E. Lewis, Lancaster, his sisters: Ann Woodward, Barbara J. Chambers (Paul), both of Coatesville, PA, and Jackie D. Lewis, Newcastle, DE, his grandson, Curtis Linton, Jr., cousins, nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his brothers: Dennis Lewis, Robert B. Lewis, Clifford E. Lewis, and his sisters: Blanche F. Lewis and Helen L. Lewis.

Services will be private at the request of the family.
