“ Larry was a good friend and a Brother in Christ. Even with both of his legs being amputated because of his diabetes, Larry had a very gracious, kind, grateful, joyful and humble spirit, along with a good attitude. He enjoyed talking about golf and we would spend some time on the driving range. His family was dear to his heart and he did what he could with his physical limitations. His joy in knowing and serving Jesus over the years in different ways, was obvious. He was a Godly example to many people. Including myself ! May Shirley and the entire family have peace in being assured of his entering into the Kingdom of heaven, because of Larry’s belief, trust and obedience to his Saviour, Jesus Christ . Grateful to be Larry’s friend. Don Landis
