“ Dear Sr. Fry and Family,
We were so sorry to hear about the sudden loss of your husband and father. We have heard so many wonderful things about you from our dear friend, Anitra. Erika, you visited our home several years ago with Anitra and we were happy to meet you. Br. Frye was so busy and active in Jehovah's organization and set a wonderful example for his family. We know that he will be dearly missed by all his dear family and friends. For now, he is safe in Jehovah's memory. You are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Dear Carol and kids,
We were sad to hear about Lenny. He will be missed by us. We will miss his wild football stories and his good sense of humor. Our hearts go out to you and the children and it hurts that we won't be able to be there for the services. You all will be in our thoughts and prayers and thankfully we have Isa.25:8,9 and we will be able to be joyful and rejoice because of our hope in Jehovah our Father. With all our Love, Dave & Dawn
