“ We have known Lloyd for several years, and have counted him as a faithful Christian brother. I realize that life was not a "bowl of cherries" for him, but I never saw him morose or complaining. The last time I (Richard) saw him was in the VA hospital a few weeks ago. His chief concern was not about his health and comfort (although I am sure he thought about those things), but for the salvation of his fellow patients, and asked that the next time someone comes to see him they would bring some gospel tracts, as he was not totally satisfied that he was adequately laying out the plan of salvation. We will miss him a lot, but know he is where he was expectantly waiting to for the past several years.

“ We want to send our deepest sympathies to all of Lloyd's family on the news of his homegoing to heaven. While we didn't know him well, he was a dedicated member of our church family at CrossWay. I (Sophia) especially remember how blessed I felt attending Lloyd's baptism at CrossWay a few years ago. He will be sorely missed. Our prayers are with you all for comfort and strength during this difficult time.
