

Lois Carper Hansell

December 28, 2015

Lois Carper Hansell, 75, of Mountville died early Sunday morning, December 27, 2015, at her home. Born in Stephens City, VA, she was the oldest daughter of Raymond and Aleatha Carper. She had 3 siblings. She was a graduate of James Wood High School, Class of 1959.

Lois worked as the Manager of the Learning Ladder Childcare Center in Mountville for four years. She then went on to serve in the Mountville Family Practice for 24 years, retiring in 2010. Lois' passion was fulfilled in serving homeless children in the area. She and Allen coordinated the Lancaster Church of the Brethren 'Be an Angel' Program, which provides uniforms and school supplies for homeless children in the school district of Lancaster.

In addition to her husband, Allen, to whom she was married for 56 years in July of this year, she is survived by daughter, Deb Hansell Faulkner and her husband, Dave Faulkner of Owosso, MI; eldest son, Allen T. Hansell, Jr. and wife, Amy Hansell of Lincoln University, PA; youngest son, Chris Hansell and wife, Stephanie Hansell of Middletown, DE; as well as nine grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

Memorial Services will be held at the Lancaster Church of the Brethren, 1601 Sunset Avenue, Lancaster, on Tuesday, December 29, 2015 at 7:00 pm and at the Wilmington Church of the Brethren, 28 Belmont Avenue, Wilmington,

DE on Wednesday, December 30, 2015 at 7:00 pm. The family will receive friends one hour before each service. A family graveside service will be held at Salem Church of the Brethren in Stephens City, VA on Thursday, December 31, 2015 at 1:00 pm. In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be sent to Lancaster Church of the Brethren, Be an Angel Program, 1601 Sunset Avenue, Lancaster, PA 17601.

Tribute Wall

“ Lois Carper Hansell

October 22, 2023 at 11:34 PM

“ The entire Tymeson family are saddened by your loss. Thinking of you, love and hugs from the Tymesons.

Brooke and Cynthia Tymeson - December 30, 2015 at 01:01 PM

“ With her sweet smile and personality, Lois has left a lasting and loving impact on so many people. May we all be comforted by endless memories of a very special lady, and may her family be surrounded by God's love and peace in this time of sadness.

Linda Ott Gerbert - December 29, 2015 at 05:03 AM

“ We are so very sorry for your loss. It was a privilege to know Lois and to have her as a part of our family. God bless.

Ed and Lynn Gottleib - December 28, 2015 at 10:46 PM