I am Louie's first cousin, Briana Corathers Harden, youngest daughter of Martha Lipscomb Corathers. I have tried for several years to locate him, so I could send cards to him and let him know he was not forgotten, but was never successful in getting that information. I had been told he had Alzheimer's, but still thought it would have been nice for him to receive mail, even though he probably would not have remembered who I was. He and I shared many Sunday meals and fun times at my mom's house when we were kids. He and my brother, Joe, met up in Europe when Louie was in the Army and Joe in the Air Force. He was such a goodhearted, good-natured, caring person. The last time I saw him was when he came to my dad's funeral in the very early 1960's. It was so very thoughtful of him to come. Gladys stayed in touch with my mom for a number of years. My heartfelt sympathy is with all of his family. I pray you feel comforted, as I do, knowing he is resting with his Lord and is no longer suffering. Love and God's blessings to you all.
