“ I only interacted with Louise a handful of times, but when I think of her, the word that comes to mind is "delightful". She was so personable and interesting. I met her at Dayne and Lisa's wedding, and then ran into her a few times at the drugstore in Willow Street, and she was always so glad to see me. I see in the obituary that she lived many different places, and I sure she made many friends each place where she lived. My sincere condolences to the family.
