

Lucille Irene (Kaylor) Kline

April 27, 2017

Lucille Irene (Kaylor) Kline, 95, died early Thursday, April 27, 2017 at Landis Homes. She was the wife of the late Richard J. Kline of East Petersburg. Together, they were long-standing members of the Covenant United Methodist Church of Lancaster.

Lucille was a woman of indomitable spirit, an adventurer, who was a passionate skier and a life-long swimmer. But the real meaning of Lucille's life was found within her family, where she was a warm, loving and nurturing mother and grandmother, who had a knack for creating fun. She and Richard, her devoted husband of 72 years, built their family business together. They loved boating, and spent many happy times on the waters of the Chesapeake Bay. She was well-loved and will be greatly missed.

Born in Deodate on October 19, 1921, she was the daughter of the late Irvin H. and Florence Nunemaker Kaylor. She is survived by two sons, G. Richard Kline and wife Nancy Whitehead Kline, Kenneth E. Kline and wife Rebecca Craft Kline, four grandchildren, John R. Kline, Sarah W. Kline, Hollis Kline Adams, and Benjamin C. Kline, and three great-granddaughters, Anais Adams, age two, and newborns, Elodie Adams and Emma Kline. She is also survived by two brothers, Carl Kaylor of Lebanon and Gaylen Kaylor of Annville, as well as a sister, Lois Kaylor Greider of Columbia. She was preceded in death by her husband, Richard J. Kline, two sisters, Betty Kaylor and Geraldine Kaylor Good, and two brothers, Harold Kaylor, and Marvin Kaylor.

She will be interred in the Silver Spring Cemetery at a private family service.
