“ My deepest condolences to the Acosta family, I met Gladys when her family moved where I lived. I was the first one they met. Actually I met Eric then he introduced me to Mami and beautiful Amelia, then Betsy her children, then the rest of this amazing family. Cooking for me, they took me to New York, Rhode Island, family outings, I haven't seen Mami Gladys for a few years, I'm heartbroken that I've got to see y'all for the first time in a few years at this traumatic time. I'm going to be there for a woman who was ther for me growing up! I love this whole family!! I will miss knowing that your not with us anymore. I WILL NEVER FORGET YOU MAMI GLADYS 💕💕
