

Margaret "Monie" R. Davis

October 1, 2024

Margaret "Monie" R. Davis, 98, formerly of Strafford, PA passed away on Tuesday, October 1, 2024. Born in Edwardsville, PA, she was the daughter of the late John E. and Margaret Morris Roberts. She was the wife of the late William B. Davis, Jr. who passed away on December 2, 2023. They celebrated 74 years of marriage together.

Monie graduated from the Nesbitt Memorial Hospital program and practiced nursing for decades, serving at the Bryn Mawr Hospital in Bryn Mawr, PA, until her retirement in 1990. She was an avid reader, traveler, seamstress, and craftsperson. Monie was a long-time member of the Wayne Presbyterian Church in Wayne, PA. She and her husband moved to Willow Valley in 1998. Her favorite times were spent with her family.

She is survived by her son, William B. Davis, III of Jenkintown, PA; her three grandchildren, Robin M. Davis JD, Rebecca L. Davis M.D. (Nicholas Natalicchio), and Johanna C. Davis (Eli Zigon), and her two great-grandchildren, Emma Natalicchio, and Iris Zigon.

A Graveside Service will be held at Indiantown Gap National Cemetery, 60 Indiantown Gap Road, Annville, PA 17003 on Tuesday, November 12, 2024, at 1:30 p.m. for Monie and her late husband William, Jr.

In lieu of flowers, please make donations to The American Cancer Society.

“ Monie always had a friendly greeting for my Mom who was a neighbor at Garden Apartments. She also shared great stories about her nursing career in the Army. I'll remember her spunk! ”
