

Mariano Capellan Coca

April 30, 2023

Mariano Capellan Coca, de 58 años, falleció inesperadamente el Domingo 30 de Abril de 2023 en su residencia. Nació en Santo Domingo, República Dominicana. Era hijo de Eduvijes Capellan y de la fallecida Altagracia Coca. Mariano se mudó a los Estados Unidos en 2015 para reunirse con su esposa de 22 años, Ana María Rodríguez Espinosa.

Trabajó en Capstone Logistics, LLC durante seis años como trabajador de producción.

Mariano estaba lleno de vida, perderlo tan inesperadamente ha dejado un vacío imprevisto a quienes lo rodeaban.

Será recordado por sus cualidades positivas. Era fuerte y muy trabajador. Mariano era muy feliz, enérgico, sociable, amistoso, siempre en movimiento y manteniéndose activo. Le gustaba salir con sus amigos, jugar dominó y escuchar salsa o recordar viejos tiempos con una vieja canción. No pedía mucho con pan y plátano Mariano era un hombre feliz.

Además de su padre Eduvijes Capellan, a Mariano le sobreviven su esposa Ana María Rodríguez Espinosa, sus cinco hijos, Raúl Capellan, Marian Capellan, Oliver Capellan, Jonathan Capellan y Chantal Parra, sus dos hermanas, Andrea Capellan, Lydia Coca, y sus dos hermanos, Ney Capellan, Luis Coca, y sus seis nietos, Raily Julen Capellan Alcántara, Sophia Baquendo, Yahir Baquendo, Johan Reynoso, Nathanael Reynoso y Jostin Reynoso.

Mariano es precedido en la muerte por su madre Altagracia Coca.

Mariano Capellan Coca, 58 passed away unexpectedly on Sunday April 30, 2023 at his residence. He was born in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic. He was the son of Eduvijes Capellan and the late Altagracia Coca. Mariano moved to the United States in 2015 to meet with his wife of 22 years Ana Maria Rodriguez Espinosa.

He worked at Capstone Logistics, LLC for six years as a production worker. Mariano was full of life, losing him so unexpectedly had left an unforeseen emptiness to those around him.

He will be remembered for his many positive qualities. He was strong and a hard worker. Mariano was very happy, energetic, sociable, friendly, always moving and staying active. He enjoyed hanging out with his friends, playing dominoes, and listening to rhythmic salsa or reminiscing on old times with an old song. He did not ask for much with bread and plantain Mariano was a happy man.

In addition to his father Eduvijes Capellan, Mariano is survived by his wife Ana Maria Rodriguez Espinosa, his five children, Raul Capellan, Marian Capellan, Oliver Capellan, Jonathan Capellan, and Chantal Parra, his two sisters, Andrea Capellan, Lydia Coca, and his two brothers, Ney Capellan, Luis Coca, and his six grandchildren, Raily Julen Capellan Alcantara, Sophia Baquendo, Yahir Baquendo, Johan Reynoso, Nathanael Reynoso, and Jostin Reynoso. Mariano is preceded in death by his mother Altagracia Coca.

“ *Nuestros más sentido pésame a su esposa Ana María, a sus hijos, hermanos, nietos, a toda la familia y seres queridos. Tuvimos el honor y el privilegio de conocerlo, compartir en familia y solo puedo decir que era un hombre muy alegre, social, humilde, y le gustaba la música, compartir con su familia y amistades.
¡Qué Dios les de fortaleza a ustedes y a nuestro amigo y hermano Mariano, que descanse en paz, Amén!
Reciban un fuerte abrazo y nuestros respetos, Zelma, Ken, y Brendan Nathaniel.*
