“ My thoughts go out to Mort's family at this sad time. Since his 103rd birthday I took my twin granddaughter's to visit Mort. They are 6 and he was happy to meet them. He asked me to come back to see his latest plaque he was awarded recently, but with the best intentions I never got back. Will remember his generousness to many organizations. Will remember his last four birthday's celebrated at Country Meadows with his Lions Club. Lancaster was lucky to have such a great Citizen.

“ My father, Jim McMullin, and I send our condolences to you. Mort was my email friend. Since my father doesn't use computers, Mort sent messages to him via me. He always suggested interesting topics for us to research.
We have fond memories of shopping at his paper goods business on Water Street, visiting with him at Country Meadows, and celebrating his 100th birthday at Valentino's.
He was quite a man.
With sympathy,
