“ First Jesus LOVES Him. We were taken back and shocked of Mark's passing. He was so.... GOOD to us when we were living in near New Cumberland, PA. We now live in Temple, Texas. During our time there and here we thought often of him and how KIND he IS. He is a blessing to know and you Julie and he spoke of his children, too. Thank you Ginny and Tony Reyes.

“ So shocked and sorry Julie to hear of Mark's passing when we returned to Pa. I was friends with Mark as you know for many years and enjoyed chatting with him, and you, about coin collecting. Mark will certainly be missed by everyone in the coin collecting community. Paul from the Host

“ Mark was a dear friend and neighbor of ours---both my husband Richard and I enjoyed spending time with him and his dear wife, Julie, over dinners. He was an erudite conversationalist. After our time together, his comments and opinions stayed with us for a long time afterward. For sure my life was richer for having known Mark. My thoughts go out to Julie and her family at this heartbreaking time.

“ Mark was a good friend from childhood in New Jersey. So thankful we kept up through the years. He always had a passion for fairness and justice, even as a kid. We laughed a lot. Always. My life is so much richer having had him as friend throughout.

“ Oh Julie, I am so sorry to hear about Mark. I just drove past Willow Valley Mall on Thursday pointing out to Bob's (Myers) son that Mark was the last of the businesses in the mall. I am so glad to have known Mark and so glad he had such a long and happy career in the coin business and such a loving family. Prayers for you and your family. “ Lots of great memories of Mark as a friend and business owner. In spite of being busy, he always took the time for his customers, even if it was just to purchase a few coin holders. Susquehanna Coin Shoppe had to be the longest running business in the Willow Valley Square complex. Mark will be missed by many who were blessed to know him.

“ I wish I had gotten to meet you! I know the pain of losing my Dad and it never really goes away...and from what Ben has told me, you were an amazing Dad and Grandpop so I'm sure you will be missed tremendously. You have an amazing legacy in your son and wife and I know you will live on in them. Laura Hyatt
