

Mary Rita DePaul

February 24, 2017

Mary Rita DePaul, 99, died at her home at Homestead Village, Lancaster PA, on Friday February 24th.

She was the daughter of Sperantina and Giovanni Mancini, and the widow of Romeo J DePaul who predeceased her in 2011.

Mary lived most of her life in Philadelphia, moving to Lancaster in 2008. A tiny, vivacious woman with a twinkle in her eye, Mary will be remembered for her culinary expertise, her joy of living, and her non-judgmental love for her family.

Mary is survived by two sons, Thomas J, husband of Kimberly DePaul of Lancaster, John E, of Philadelphia three granddaughters, Danielle Stevenson (James) of Boston, Arianne DePaul Maloney of Lancaster, and Kristen DePaul of Washington DC, and two great granddaughters, Skylar Stevenson and Sophia Maloney.

A viewing will be held on Thursday March 2 at 11am at D'Anjollell Memorial Homes, 2811 West Chester Pike, Broomall PA

A Memorial Service at the D'Anjollell Memorial Homes will be scheduled by the family at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Homestead Village, PO Box

“ Tom, Kim & Family,

Our heart, thoughts and positive energies are with you all at this time of your profound loss. How fortunate for you all to have had so many years to share with this amazing lady. May the love for and reflections of the wonderful memories of your lives shared carry the day. With our deepest sympathies....Jeff LeFevre & Stephanie Shertzer Lawson

“ What a better measure of a person is the children they raise? I got to know Mary DePaul through her son Thomas a gentleman and caring man if there ever was one. This is certainly a product of the love and guidance from Mary and Romeo. I believe all who knew them are confident they are together and walking arm in arm.
