“ We are greatly saddened by the loss of our long time friend, Mary. She was a gal who would never let anything get her down, and proved it until the end. We will miss her wonderful smile, her love towards all she knew, her happy laughter and her giving personality, and especially her fabulous Pennsylvania Dutch cooking. May you finally be in peace, now and forever.

We love and miss you.

“ Mary was such a lovely lady. She was always supportive to me, a great listener, and had a wonderful smile. I am thankful for all the good memories I have of her and Dick together, attending several Chi Phi Fraternity events. She is already greatly missed by all of us who had the honor of calling her our friend!
