“ I am so sorry for your loss. I worked with Mary Lou at Shenk Brothers from 1972 - 1979, when I left to have my first child. I have such fond memories of working with Mary Lou, Joe & Victor, especially during the hectic Christmas seasons when we worked Tuesday and Friday evenings. Your Mother could always make us laugh, she will be missed by many. Your family is in my thoughts and prayers.

“ My condolences to the family. I knew MaryLou since I was a young girl. My parents, Izzy (Stark) and Mac McComsey lived on Fourth Street and knew the Hoover family very well. I also was a member of Pearl Street Church.
