MARY KUHLMAN POOLE – AMATEUR ARTIST

Mary K. Poole, 102, of Bausman, went home to be with her Lord and Savior on Sunday, August 3, 2014 at Hospice and Community Care, Mt. Joy surrounded by her loving family. Born in Lancaster, Mrs. Poole was the daughter of the late Daniel and Mary Moser Kuhlman, widow of the late H. Frederick Poole, sister of the late Parke A. Kuhlman and mother to her husband's youngest sister, Florence Poole Hammel, who grew up as a daughter in the house.

Mary served the Lord at Christ Lutheran Church for over fifty years and taught in the Sunday school for most of that time.

Retired, she had been employed by Shaub's Shoe Shop as a sales person and office clerk for thirty years. Besides her painting activity, Mary collected, studied and created many beautiful objects from sea shells.

She is survived by a daughter, Laurel Lee Forney; a brother, Newton Cook; two grandsons, John Forney, Fred, Forney; four great grandchildren, John F., Abbigale Y., Fred T., Evelyn G. Morales and two great great grandchildren, Arianna G. and Maria Morales.

Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend Mary's Funeral Service on Friday, August 8, 2014 at 11:00 a.m. at Christ Lutheran Church, corner of W. King and Manor Streets, Lancaster with Reverend Adam T. Morton officiating. A viewing and the family will receive friends at the church from 10:00 a.m. until the time of service. Interment will take place in Conestoga Memorial Park.

In lieu of flowers, Memorial contributions in Mary's name may be made to Christ Lutheran Church, 407 Lafayette Street, Lancaster, PA 17603.

“ Through my sister, Vivien McKee, I had the pleasure and delight to know Mary. She was a marvelous person and artist. I am fortunate enough to have a constant reminder of her for one of her seashell flower arrangements graces my home.

I also knew her to be an inveterate reader and delightful conversationalist. Clearly this world was blessed by her presence.
