

Mary H. Bacharach

January 31, 2011

Mary Rae H. Bacharach of Lancaster passed away at the age of 100 on Saturday January 29, 2011 at the Brethren Village Nursing Home. Born in Baltimore Md. she was the daughter of the late Harry Lauer and Mabel Kauffman Harman. In July she celebrated 67 years of marriage with her husband Lewis C. Bacharach. They met as he was serving in WWII and she worked as a Red Cross volunteer.

Mary was a graduate of Maryland Art Institute and moved to New York City where she was a window decorator. She also taught at the Devereaux Foundation and was a founding mother in the Mothers March of Dimes, a co-founder of the Tuscan United Order of True Sisters, an organizer of the Whitemarsh Village Policemen's' Ball, and a member of the National Council of Jewish Women. As a little girl, she sat on Babe Ruth's lap and studied dance at the Peabody Institute in Baltimore. Her love of art was a guiding light in her life and she encouraged her son to become an artist. She was always doing for others and enjoyed being a Cub Scout Den mother. Brandeis University bestowed upon her the honor of "Woman of Valor". At the age of 90 Mary wrote and illustrated a children's book called Big Black's Neighbors. She was a member of Temple Emmanuel in Tucson, AZ and attended, Shaarai Shomayim in Lancaster, PA.

In addition to her husband Mary is survived by two sons William H. Bacharach of Pequea, PA and Roger L, husband, of Trudie Bacharach of Lancaster, PA. and her grandchildren Joel C. and Jordan Rae Bacharach. She was preceded in death by her sister Bebe Hecht.

A private Service will be held at the convenience of the family. Memorials may be made in Mary's memory to National Council of Jewish Women, 475 Riverside Drive, Suite 1901, New York, NY 10115, Brandeis University, Tucson Chapter, PO Box 549110 - MS 124, Waltham, MA 02454-09110, United Order of Two Sisters, 5575 S.
