“ My deepest condolences and prayers to your family on the loss of Mary Ann. I worked with Mary Ann in the mortgage department of Hamilton Bank, many years ago. I knew very little about mortgages when I started, and Mary Ann was a wonderful, kind and patient teacher about all that was involved in the process and the documents involved after the purchase of a home. We became friends, and she was my first mentor of my 30-year career in mortgage. I am so fortunate to have known her and I know she will be missed. Rest in Peace, Mary Ann. Donna Kilgore

“ Went to school with Mary Ann as well as joining her on Reunion Committee and breakfast once a month. She was always a kind, sweet person. We will miss her at breakfast. I shall always remember her with a smile on her face. She fought a good battle the last two years and she hid her pain and struggle with that insidious disease.
