

Matthew T. Ingram

August 22, 2021

Matt Ingram, 44, beloved husband and best friend of Abby Ingram, died in a tragic accident on Sunday, August 22, 2021. Matt is also survived by his mom, Ginni Ingram, his dad, Tom Ingram, and the sister he worshipped, Meg Kendrick, along with her husband Richard and their children, Thomas, Collins, and Palmer. To name all the most precious family is impossible. Ingrams, Fishers, Avants, and Boynes, please know that Matt loved you all more than words can describe. Matt's closest friends were one of the most important aspects of his identity, and he loved you all tremendously.

Matt graduated from McCaskey High School in 1995 and then the University of Pittsburgh in 2000. For the last 15 years he worked and built a career he was proud of at Peach Bottom in Nuclear Security. Although work was an integral part of Matt's life, the most important things to him were always his friends and family. Matt was present in the life of the people he loved to shine his light with his wisdom, wit, and never-ending loyalty. Matt also remained loyal to his Philadelphia Eagles. Fly Eagles Fly.

On the list of important times in Matt's life are the times he was able to be on the golf course with his best friends and family. No matter the outcome, or the times he lost money, he would not have changed any of it. My favorite times are when Matt would come home to me with all the golf stories, eyes full of love and laughter. Matt would want people to continue to live their lives to the fullest, not to mourn for him but to celebrate him and keep his brilliant light alive. Matt would want you to travel, have deep relationships with others, and never stop swinging the clubs.

A celebration of Matt's life will take place on Friday, August 27, 2021, at 11:00 a.m. at The Groffs Family Funeral Home, 528 W. Orange Street, Lancaster, PA 17603. Family will receive friends from 9:00 a.m. until the time of service. Any after gatherings will be announced at the service.

In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to Pet Pantry of Lancaster where Matt met his first cat love, Noodle.

“ Sending my deepest condolences to Matt's wife, family and friends. My husband and I both grew up with Matt and were stunned by the news of his tragic passing. Matt was a fiercely loyal friend and always had a smile on his face. I will hold the memories of all the fun times we had together close. I ran into him a few years ago at a football game and it was as if no time had passed. Sending prayers of comfort to all that were lucky enough to know him. Fly high Matt!

“ Praying for peace and comfort for the family and friends of Matt. I still remember our childhood days of playing basketball. Matt was competitive, funny, and a good sport. He wasn't too bad in the trash talking area either, Lol. Sleep in peace my friend. Those that knew Matt will always remember that smile.

Thank you so much, Beth. Matt always liked you - you wouldn't let him get away with his "stuff", and were always fair and loving. You reminded him of his Aunt Su.

“ I didn't know Matt well but we would chat briefly on my way through the access building at work. It would be nothing more than a “Good morning “, “Hello”, or “It's our last night shift”. I remember thinking to myself as I walked through, that's a nice fella. Now I wish we would have been friends instead of acquaintances. Suddenly our world is a lesser place without him.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you all, Abby, Meg, Ginni, Tom and family. Matt was a good friend, and will be missed very much. He was easy to get along with, joking around and laughing it up about anything and everything! We had many good times together over the years, and although we didn't get to hang much as we got older, we'd pick right up where we left off when we did see each other. He will absolutely be missed. Very sorry. Miles (Buddy) Suydam and family

“ Abby,

Our thoughts and prayers are with you at this most difficult time. We have so many great memories of Matt ... many involve him and Dee squabbling over who had the best golf game and who took whose money on any given week. Wherever he was, his presence was felt by all in the most positive way.

May you be surrounded by love in the days, weeks and months to come. And, somehow, I pray all of the precious memories bring you peace.

*Much love,
Nicole & Kevin Hostetter (Stacie's sister and BIL)
