

Michael Paul Trimble

December 30, 2019

Michael Paul Trimble, 37, of Lancaster, died on Monday, December 30, 2019, at home. Born in Lancaster, he was the son of John David Trimble, Sr. and Vanessa Kelley Appel, wife of David E. Appel.

He worked as a driver in the transportation industry.

Michael was an outgoing and curious man who trusted everyone and cared about others more than himself. Always the clown, he was known as the Jokester who loved to fix everything. He could never sit still. He loved watching WWE wrestling, Johnny Carson and was a huge Superman fan. Rice and beans were a food favorite. His family recalls the time he wore a bikini to Turkey Hill. Mike struggled with drug addiction for much of his adult life.

Michael is survived by his four brothers: James Kelley, (Melissa Meckley), Kinzers, John Trimble, Jr., (Deborah), Manheim, Joshua Trimble, (Rachel), Quarryville and Cody Trimble, Pequea; three step-children: Daniel, Emily and Jenna; his only surviving grandparent, Eleanor Wright Trimble, nieces: Ashley-Marie and Abigail; nephews: Justin, Andrew, Raymond, Austin, Ethan, and John, III; cousins: John, Ernest, Jr., Mary, Dorothy, Barbara, Tammy and Gus; and uncles: Ernest, Sr., Will, Ben and Robert.

He was preceded in death by Aunt Mary E. Prokay and Uncle Gus Miller.

By the request of the family, services will be private.

“ My condolences Trimble family. Mike was a good guy for the few years that I knew him. I hope that you celebrate his life more than you mourn his death. I remember him always being the one that took care of Ray, Austin and Ethan. I remember him buying a Ford Mustang and he would go on rides with Travis. My prayers are with you Trimble family.
