

Mikeisha Shabli Gant

October 22, 2015

Mikeisha Shabli Gant, 30, of Lancaster, PA, went home to be with the Lord on Tuesday, October 20, 2015. She was born in Lancaster, PA the daughter of Reverend Michael and Reverend Abadella (Robertson) Gant. She was a member of House of Bread Life Changing Ministries, in Lancaster. Surviving besides her parents are; her siblings, Marteshia Gant of Durham, NC, Michael Gant Jr. and Marques Gant of Lancaster, PA; and her grandparents Willie and Carrie Robertson of Harrisburg, PA and Barbara Gant of Lancaster, PA. Preceding her in death was her grandfather Kenneth Gant Sr. She also has a host of loving uncles, aunts and cousins.

Mikeisha was born with sickle cell disease and she battled her entire life. However, she was determined and full of hope. She attended J. P. McCaskey High School where she thrived through her involvement in the gospel choir, cheer-leading, mime ministry, and volunteer services as an after school tutor and mentor. Toward the end of her senior year her health began to decline, but because Mikeisha was a fighter, she pressed and gave all she had to physically walk for one of her last times, across the stage to receive her diploma in May 2003.

Keisha will be remembered for who she is, her ailment didn't define her. She will always be known as one who loved and cared deeply for others, especially her family and friends. Her graceful poise left many amazed as she was continuously postured to minister. Anyone who came in contact with her was greeted with love and affection, she was often considered a bedside therapist as those who came to comfort her, found themselves pouring out their hearts in anticipation for Keisha's thoughtful advice and wisdom. She was a worshipper, gifted with an amazing voice and the ability to write poetry and songs. One of her favorite past times was watching movies over and over again with her devoted mother who was an excellent care taker and her best friend.

Keisha is now healed from sickle cell anemia, and is finally pain free in the presence of her Heavenly Father. We invite all to come and celebrate her life!

Funeral Services will be held on Monday, October 26, 2015 at 1:00 p.m. at Ebenezer Baptist Church, 701 N. Lime Street in Lancaster PA 17603 with Reverend Roland P. Forbes officiating. The viewing will be from 11:30 a.m. until the start of the service. Burial will be in Mellinger Mennonite Cemetery.

All donations can be sent to 844 E. Chestnut Street, Lancaster, PA 17602, and flowers to Groff Funeral Home at 528 West Orange Street, Lancaster PA 17603.

“ To the Gant Family, we express our deepest condolences and pray that God will comfort you during this time in your lives. We know that Keisha is with the Lord! Eternity is forever and one day we will join our loved ones who have transitioned before us...enjoying one another "praising God" once again (forever)!

*God Bless You,
James "Pooch" Morant and Bonnie*

“ I did not know Keisha, but reading about her, I can imagine her existing here on earth. She looked beautiful and from the description was also beautiful on the inside. I am so sorry for your loss but I know you will see her again some day.

“ While there is an emptiness in hearts of everyone who ever came in contact with Keisha, let us never forget she is with the Almighty and is dancing, singing and without pain and suffering. Many of us struggle to lead a life that is worthy of being called one of Gods sons or daughters, but not Keisha. She was exactly what any parent would ask for in a child and more. For all who were blessed to know her truly understood what the saying "more beautiful inside than out" really meant. Keisha is a beautiful young lady who had every right to complain but chose not to. Keisha had every right to ask "why me"? but chose not to. Keisha had every right to be negative and downtrodden. Instead she praised God every day for what she had and not what she did not. Keisha was a bright light in a dark world but those who knew her have her light in their heart at all times and should call upon those memories when they are feeling down because anyone who knew Keisha cannot help but smile as they remember her beautiful soul.
