

Miriam (Greenawalt) Miller

April 20, 2015

Miriam (Greenawalt) Miller, 81, passed away on Thursday, April 16, 2015 at Willow Valley Lakeside. Born in Butler, PA, she was the daughter of Lena Dufford and Clifford Greenawalt. She graduated from Manheim Township High School, Lancaster, PA, and then from the Johns Hopkins University, School of Nursing, Baltimore, MD and the University of Colorado, Boulder, CO, earning a Bachelor's degree in Nursing. She later received her Master's degree in Psychology from Millersville University, Lancaster, PA.

Early in her career, she worked as a registered nurse at various hospitals. After taking time off to raise two daughters, she taught Psychiatric Nursing for 10 years at Lancaster General Hospital. She was an active member of the Unitarian Universalist Church of Lancaster.

"Mim" was known for her great sense of style, and for her love of horses, swimming and dancing. Her house was always filled with beloved pets, most recently her Pomeranian, Maestro.

She is survived by her loving husband of 57 years, William; two daughters, Tamalyn of New York, NY and Tess of Washington Grove, MD; and two step sisters, Doris Ober of Elizabethtown, PA, and Helen Young of Clermont, FL.

In accordance with Miriam's wishes, no public memorial service will be held.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in her memory to:
Hospice and Community Care, P.O. Box 4125, Lancaster, PA 17604 or the Unitarian Universalist Church of Lancaster, 538 West Chestnut Street, Lancaster, PA 17603.

“ Bill

We were saddened to hear of Mim's death on our return. She was a lovely woman and one we feel as if we had known for a long time prior to moving across the street. She had undergone some hard times but in spite of it she always had a smile. Our sympathy is with you and your family.
