

Nancy M. Hollinger

October 2, 2015

English War Bride

Nancy Mary Hollinger, 90 passed away on October 1, 2015 at Brethren Village, Lancaster. She was born May 5, 1925 in Madeley, England, daughter of the late Richard and Mary (Bagley) Phillips.

She met her loving husband, Richard E. Hollinger, Manheim in England while he was serving in the U.S. Army Air Force during WWII. They were married in England in 1945 and were married 69 years. Richard preceded her in death September 18, 2015.

After arriving in the United States April 29, 1946, she worked at RCA and Schwam's watch factory. She was a member of St. James Episcopal Church where she served on the Alter Guild. She also enjoyed craft activities.

She will be greatly missed by her loving daughter, Sandra, wife of Stephen Ziegfeld, Lancaster along with her granddaughter, Pamela wife of Ken Thompson, and 4 great grandchildren, Zakary, Brielle, Alexis, and Kyle.

The family wishes to thank the staff of Brethren Village for their thoughtfulness and care during her 9 ½ years in nursing care.

Family and friends will be received on Monday, October 5, 2015 at 10:00 am at the chapel at Brethren Village, 3001 Lititz Pike, Lancaster, with the funeral service to follow at 11:00am.

Interment will take place at the Fairview Cemetery, Denver.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in Nancy's memory to Brethren Village Endowment Fund, Attn. Development Dept., 3001 Lititz Pike, Lancaster, PA 17606-5093.
