

Nicholle "Nikki" M. Graybeal

November 16, 2025

Nicholle M. Graybeal "Nikki" of Lancaster, PA, passed away suddenly on Sunday, November 16, 2025. She was 42 years young.

Nikki was born and raised in Lancaster to her beloved parents Stacey Lynn Graybeal and Steven Newcomer. From an early age, Nikki was a magnetic spirit, stubborn, headstrong, fiercely intelligent, and endlessly curious. A lifelong natural student, she went on to earn Bachelor Degrees in Philosophy and Biology from Millersville University, but her education extended far beyond the classroom. She was a people person to her core, selfless, protective, and always checking to make sure everyone else was OK.

Nikki loved animals of every kind, especially squirrels, and could happily spend an entire day at a zoo or aquarium. A true horror movie fanatic and dedicated fan of True Crime shows and documentaries, she balanced her dark cinematic tastes with a big and unapologetic personality. She could be foul mouthed at times, but always with love, humor, and the best intentions. She was also an avid reader, drawn especially to the works of Clive Barker and local author Brian Keene. A devoted Dallas Cowboys fan since childhood, Nikki's passions were many, but none more special than music, particularly Bon Jovi, a love she shared with her mom who took her to countless concerts and shows.

She is the devoted mother of Priest McKenzie; dear sister of Austin and Kayla Tucker, loving maternal granddaughter of Esther Graybeal and also survived by true, lifetime friends of Joseph McKenzie and Brian Pond.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend her Celebration of Life on Saturday, November 29, 2025 at 1:00 p.m. at The Groffs Family Funeral Home and Cremation Services, 528 W. Orange Street, Lancaster, PA, where relatives and friends may call at 11:30 a.m. to 12:45 p.m.

“ I first met Nikki when we worked together at a local lab about 10 years ago and I was lucky enough to be able to work with her again at LGH. She was always so kind and funny We used to always laugh about the Golden Girls and stuff. I just came across her number in my phone last week and I thought "I need to text her and see how she's doing" and then I saw her obituary and I almost had a heart attack. Rest in peace my dear friend.

“ Nikki was such a sweetie! I LOVED her sassy spirit! ❤️ She was always true to herself, making no apologies, and I so admired that! I Norwich her in Pathology at LGH lab. I was so blessed to have known her! Much love, prayers and comfort for her family
