We were sooo sorry to hear of Nick's passing. Our son, Bryan, shared the same vocation and love of nature & the mountains as Nick, and enjoyed the time spent with his friend Nick. He deeply mourns with you now. We are all praying for you all. May your memories come to be a comfort. God bless. 🙏❤️

“ I used to live with my family up the street past the Henry's on Briarwood Blvd. We used to watch with amazement at whatever contraption that Nick and Ben would be riding, pushing or pulling up the street. If I remember correctly at least one of those included a dog.

The two always reminded me of the love of mental exploration.

When referring to the Nick and Ben they always reminded me of Huck Finn and Tom Sawyer.

The two boys always seemed to find a way to enjoy life regardless. It was with great sadness that my son who still lives on Briarwood informed me about Nicks passing. I am so very sorry.
