“ Few people can remember back as far as I can, about the life and commitment of Norman Rock. Norm and I came out of the same Corps, Plattsburgh, NY from the mid 50s. We worked at the same Restaurant while in High School and most importantly, we worshipped and took part in most of the Corps activities. Norm knew he was to be an Officer very early in his teens and lived a life worthy of that post long before becoming a Cadet. Now he rests in the embrace of his Savior. I pray that embrace will touch Elsie with a source of strength and comfort. Sheila and I can only add, “Well done, out friend, well done. “ God bless the Elsie and family.
