“ Deb and Family,
Hey, it's Sherrie that used to live with Joe (back when we were a whole heck of a lot younger). I remember all the times we hung out at your house on Strawberry Street, and I have so many memories. I remember how excited Oscar used to get when it was corn pie time. And I remember when the casinos opened in Atlantic City and he won like $3,000. He was so excited. Of course he went back down and gave it all back. I remember when Little O and Beverly were born. I remember all the pinochle and poker games with everyone.

Cass called me Saturday morning to tell me about Oscar. I was so sorry to hear about it. And with this virus thing, you can't even have a normal service at this time.

I just wanted you to know I was thinking of you and everyone.

Take care,
Sherrie (Hawthorne) Russell
