“ To all of the family of Pat Gross -

So sad to hear of Pat's passing . Barry and I spoke with her on Saturday by telephone. She sounded tired but was her same old self. We so enjoyed all of the Dominoe games we played with her over the years at the Mennonite Home. She provided love and laughter to us as we listened to Rod Stewart's Great American Songbook, Patsy Cline, Barry Manilow, Andy Williams and Frank Sinatra, and yes she knew the names of all of the songs! She was a kind companion for my Dad in the time before he passed. He really enjoyed her company and she felt like a member of our family also.

Farewell to Pat until we all meet again on the other side! We love you!

“ We were so sad to learn that Pat had passed. Pat was a good friend to my mom Gerry, at Mennonite Home. She will be greatly missed. Gerry was always trying to go over to visit Pat in the last several months of covid. She was happy when they could play cards again and will really miss their games and her company. Our condolences to the family. Take care.
