“ I'm so glad I got to meet Pat and be her friend. I met her through Calvary Homes where she lived. I used to play the piano in Health Care for the residents. I was impressed with her friendliness and interest in everything. So sorry to learn of her passing. She told me that when she entered the Nursing Area where she resided, she started to memorize all the hymns in the songbook. And she did! She never used a songbook and knew all the songs. If I didn't know a certain hymn, she would help me by singing a little of it so I would know the tempo, etc. She was fun to be with, and smart until the end!

“ I am so sorry that Pat has left this earth, but know she's so very HAPPY in the presence of our Lord. She was a memorable woman who left a positive lasting legacy and touched so many lives with her no-nonsense and "can do" personality and love for things of our Lord.

“ Pat was a favorite person of mine in the church. She was the first missionary I met. Later when I was an ordained pastor she encouraged me. A year or so ago I met her at Calvary homes when I visited another woman who influenced my life with God. I am grateful for her presence in my life.
