

Patricia Pollard Schroeder

September 22, 2014

Patricia McKay Pollard Schroeder, 63, of Lancaster passed away Sunday, September 21, 2014, at her home surrounded by her loved ones. Born in Ft. Sill, Oklahoma, she was the daughter of the late John Scott and Elizabeth McKay Pollard of Fayetteville, North Carolina and was married to Frederick N. Schroeder with whom she would have celebrated 23 years of marriage this November.

Pat was a graduate of St. Mary's College in Raleigh, NC and Pan American Business School in Richmond, Va. She made her debut at the Terpsichorean Club of North Carolina in 1970. Pat began her business career at Hunton & Williams law firm in Richmond, Va. She moved to New York where she was an administrative assistant for the US Tennis Association. After moving to Lancaster, she worked with ISC, Intelligencer Printing and the Lancaster County Conservancy.

Pat was a member of St. James Episcopal Church, Lancaster, the Junior League of Lancaster, the Lancaster Country Club, and the Lancaster Conservancy. She was a board member of James Buchanan Wheatland, and volunteered countless hours for the Fulton Theater, Tanger Arboretum, Women's and Babies Hospital, and The Lancaster Assembly.

She had a great sense of adventure and travelled extensively to many locations including the Amazon River Basin, the Galapagos and our country's National Parks. Birding, needlepoint, art collecting, decorating, flower arranging, entertaining and cooking for her family and friends were just a few of her favorite pastimes. Pat had a delightful sense of humor and displayed it often to the joy of her family and friends. She also enjoyed singing and spending time at the shore in Avalon, New Jersey.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by her stepson, Frederick "Fritz" N., Jr., husband of Mary Schroeder, of Millersville, PA, three sisters, Ibbey Connell and husband Jim of Raleigh, NC, Ann Leonard and husband Jim, of Lancaster, PA, Coco Davis, and husband J.B., of Raleigh, NC, a brother, Scott Pollard of Raleigh, NC, one step-grandson, Ezra Schroeder, eight nieces and nephews and eight great nieces and nephews.

Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend Patricia's Memorial Service on Thursday, September 25, 2014 at St. James Episcopal Church, 119 N. Duke Street, Lancaster, PA at 11:00 a.m., with The Reverend David W. Peck officiating. The family will receive friends from 10:00 a.m. until the time of service. Interment will take place in St. James Episcopal Church Cemetery.

Memorial contributions in Patricia's name may be made to St. James Episcopal Church, 119 N. Duke Street, Lancaster, PA 17603, James Buchanan's Wheatland at LancasterHistory.org, the Wetland Institute, Stone Harbor, NJ or a charity of your choice.

Tribute Wall

“ Patricia Pollard Schroeder

October 22, 2023 at 11:34 PM

“ Ann, I just learned this evening of the passing of your sister Pat. I am very sorry that you have gone through this difficult time, but I am sure that great memories together with Pat in Lancaster will help you through this time. My best. Frank Barragan

Frank Barragan - November 04, 2014 at 07:02 PM

“ I came to know Pat through the great love and care she had for my Mom. My heart goes out to you Fritz as I have witnessed the great love you have for Pat. Thanks to you and Pat for being great friends of the Witmer family, and Pat will be missed dearly for her tender ways and her generosity. Don and I regret deeply that we are out of town at this time, and are not there to support you dear Fritz...as Pat would say. xo to you dear one and sending much strength for the trials.

Julia Witmer Holland - September 24, 2014 at 12:19 AM “ Having worked with Pat at ISC, my memories are of someone who told the very best stories. She always livened up a conversation with her humor and smiles. I'm sure you'll miss her and am sorry for your loss.

Mary Jo Plank - September 23, 2014 at 01:19 PM