“ Winnie,

I would like to offer my condolences - I have often thought about you and PK through out the years and was sorry to hear that he is gone.

Take care.

“ Dearest Winnie: Just wanted to extend my sympathies to you and your family. I am sure that this is a difficult time, but I am sure knowing that PK is not suffering anymore is a weight that is lifted. I admire you for your strength that you showed all of us during Paul's sickness. There are many prayers going up for you and your family as you go through this time.

In His Service with Love,

Jeane
