“ It was with deep sorrow that I just read in the U of M alum magazine about Pete’s death. Cindy was my sorority sister and a very dear friend, so I saw Pete many times at the sorority house. The last time I saw him was when he and Cindy came to our house on Lake Murray, outside of Columbia, SC. As they were getting out of their car, I played the CD of Michigan marching band’s “Hail to the Victors.” Of course, we all chimed in on this one. I loved especially Pete’s cheerfulness, kindness, and respect for others. I treasure the times that we shared together.
