“ We will miss Raub and all the good times we had together. We particularly remember one summer when Raub, Dick and Joan rented a little cottage we had next to our home in Ocean City, Maryland. They were there for June, July and August and we had a blast together - everything from boating, crabbing and enjoying Diane and Raub's fine cooking.

One of our favorite restaurants that summer was The Captains Galley which probably produced the best crab cake ever made. Raub's favorite salad dressing was their homemade chunky blue cheese dressing and he would pile it on high.

Raub, Diane and Dick also traveled across country to Denver, Colorado to help our daughter, Stephanie, return to the east coast - what a trip - Raub kept us laughing going out and coming back (what a sense of humor)!

One other time we all went to the Outer Banks and enjoyed each others company the whole time we were there - we never argued. Raub and Dick went to the top of the Corolla Lighthouse - once on top we went out on the ledge - everything was fine until Raub froze in place - we did not realize he was afraid of heights. Dick finally talked him in from the ledge - but what an experience.

We loved Raub and will never forget him
