

Rev. Luecke Lartz

November 23, 2013

The Rev. Elizabeth "Betsy" Lartz passed from the church militant to the church triumphant on November 22, 2013. Previously a resident of Harrisburg, she moved to Frey Village, Middletown, following surgery to remove a brain tumor this spring, and since July was cared for by the wonderful staff of Hamilton Arms, Lancaster.

Pastor Lartz was born on Nov. 3, 1946 in Pittsburgh, Pa., daughter of the Reverend Gerhard Luecke and Dorothy Brauer Luecke. She was a 1964 graduate, with honors, of Wm. Penn High School, York, a 1968 graduate of Valparaiso University with a major in Geography, and a 1998 graduate of the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Gettysburg, with a Master of Divinity degree. She worked at Jack's Department Store of York, and before her ordination was employed at the former St. Joseph's Hospital of Lancaster.

She was ordained a pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America on June 12, 1998 and called to serve Immanuel Lutheran Church in Williamstown, Pa. She went on to serve as Pastor of Salem Lutheran Church in Oberlin, Pa, Redeemer Lutheran Church in Harrisburg, PA and as the interim pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church in Colebrook, Pa. and Zion Lutheran Church in Liverpool, PA. Since 2008, she preached regularly at Zion Lutheran Church, Marysville, Pa. and other Lutheran churches, and especially enjoyed her last assignment at Simeon Gratz Lutheran Church, Gratz, Pa. in the early months of this year.

Pastor Lartz was a former member of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church (LCMS) in York, where her father served as pastor for many years. When she retired from ministry, she rejoined her home congregation, Grace Lutheran Church (ELCA) in Lancaster, where she had been encouraged in her call to ordained ministry and where she served in many ways as an active layperson, especially working with and caring for children of the church and neighborhood, and teaching the stories of Holy Scripture and Martin Luther's Catechism to confirmation class.

She was preceded in death by a sister, Madolyn, and is survived by her brother, the Reverend Mark Luecke, of Canton, Ohio and two nephews: Joel Paul Bennet Luecke and Benjamin Mark Bennet Luecke, her former husband, Tom Lartz of Denver, Colorado as well as numerous cousins, friends, colleagues and parishioners. The service of Christian Burial will be held at Grace Lutheran Church, 517 N. Queen St., Lancaster, Pa. 17603 at 1:00 p.m. on Tuesday, November 26, 2013 with committal following the service at Greenmont Cemetery of York, Pa. Visitation will be held for an hour prior to the service. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Grace Lutheran Church at the address above.

Tribute Wall

“ Rev. Luecke Lartz

October 22, 2023 at 11:34 PM

“ Betsy- friend, seminary classmate, fellow pastor, I will miss her quick smile, funny laugh, and good spirit. Cannot make funeral because of distance, but family and friends are in my prayers.
Pastor Lil

Rev. Lillian Russell-Nicolai - November 25, 2013 at 11:52 PM